

Car Dealership,

Customers for both buying a car or servicing a car,
Cars can be bought and also can be serviced along with all necessary info on the car,
Service tickets can be made for customers along with description of what type of service is being done on the cars,
Sales persons info for their creditals,
Service history has the ID of a car the details of the service, Mechanics will have their creditals and along will have access to most information except the salepersons information, invocies can be accessed by anybody, customers,salesperson, and mechanics

